

Artist Prospectus
Canterbury Art Show... A Tapestry of the Arts
September 2, 3, 4 2017
Meet the Artists Reception & Preview September 1, 2017

We are pleased to present this Artist Prospectus in the Call to Artists for participation in the 2017 Canterbury Art Show... *A Tapestry of the Arts, a premier local exhibition and sale of artwork at St. George's-by-the-River in Rumson, NJ.

This 3-day event will be actively marketed and promoted via the Internet, through social and print media to New Jersey's art community, and through our parish of over 400 members.

You may choose to submit your original artwork in any or all of the following categories: Juried Gallery, Non-Juried Treasures or Non-Juried Portfolio Pieces. Awards will be presented to the Juried Gallery winners at the Meet the Artists Reception, on Friday, September 1st for Best in Show (including a separate award for photography), Award in Excellence and Honorable Mention (in each medium category.)

Proceeds from the Canterbury Art Show will directly benefit St. George's-by-the-River Church and its many Outreach programs. We are proud of the well-organized Outreach programs that serve our community. St. George's awards annual grants to over 30 local agencies including Lunch Break, Family Promise, HABcore, 180 Turning Lives Around, and Love, Inc., just to name a few.

Some basic information:

- Only those artists who submit an Artist Participation Form and required entry fee(s), no later than the deadline of midnight May 14, 2017, will be considered to be included in the Canterbury Art Show. The Artist Participation Form can be found at www.canterburyartshow.com
- All artwork must be priced with the true intention of selling the artwork.
- The Canterbury Art Show (St. George's-by-the-River) will retain a 30% commission on all artwork and auction items sold.
- Any artist who is 18 years of age or older is eligible to participate. There is a separate segment to the show this year, Art-by-Teens, for artists ages 13-17. Art-by-Teens Participation Form and required entry fee is due no later than midnight May 14, 2017.
- No artwork will be accepted without prior registration and an inventory list of submitted artwork.
- The Canterbury Art Show reserves the right to use digital images of accepted and exhibited artwork for the purpose of media, website, public relations and advertising.
- Participating adult artists will be our guests at the Meet the Artists Reception on Friday, September 1st. All other guests will be charged $40 in advance ($50 at the door).
- The Canterbury Art Show is open to the public Saturday, Sunday & Monday for an admission fee of $10.

Participation is limited to the first 30 Art-by-Teen Participation Forms received with payment. Form submission can be done either on the website www.canterburyartshow.com or can be mailed to the church (instructions are contained in the prospectus).

The Art-by-Teens Non-Juried Submission Form and inventory list should be submitted by August 6th midnight. A Parent/Legal Guardian Form with signature will be required when artwork is checked-in. A link to this form is located on the show website.

Art from Artists

We are inviting all participating artists to donate artwork for our Art from Artists raffle/drawing. Tickets will be sold to patrons at the reception and each day during normal show hours. A drawing will be held at the close of each day. Winners need not be present to win. Proceeds will go to St. George's and its vital community outreach programs. St. George's awards annual grants to over thirty local agencies including Lunch Break, Family Promise, HABcore, 180 Turing Lives Around, and Love, Inc.

Donated artwork may be an original or a print from original artwork and must be labeled accordingly. The size should not exceed 20" x 24", framed or on canvas that wraps around the sides with no staples visible, they must be wired for hanging (tab hangers are not acceptable) or matted and wrapped. The donated artwork will not count towards your total number of submissions (5 for treasures, 10 for portfolio pieces).

All donated artwork will be prominently displayed and will be acknowledged in the Art Show Journal, on the show's website and in press releases.

In order to participate, an Art from Artists Participation form must be received by August 13, 2017. This form can be found at: www.canterburyartshow.com.

Artists-at-Work

This was a new feature added to the Canterbury Art Show in 2013 because many of our art show attendees told us that it would be great to see our fabulous artists working during the show. This feature of the show is available to all Canterbury Art Show artists and there is no charge for this opportunity.

Eligibility & Rules

- Any artist in the Canterbury Art Show (paid and registered) may participate. However, due to limited space, this opportunity is available on a first-come-first-serve basis
- In order to participate, an Artists-at-Work Participation form must be received by August 13, 2017. This form can be found at: www.canterburyartshow.com
- Artists-at-Work will take place on Saturday, September 2, Sunday, September 3, and Monday, September 4 during daytime show hours.
- Artists may work inside the church (excluding the altar areas) when a service is not in process. Only watercolor or pencil is allowed and artists must supply a floor covering to protect the church floor. Since electric outlets are limited, artists must be able to work with available overhead and ambient light sources.
- Any subject matter is permitted for the artwork. Subject matter may be officially plein air or may be created from a reference image or still life arrangement. Artists may bring an unfinished piece of artwork to finish during the show.
- Artists are welcome to take photographs of the church when a service is not in process. Photographs taken inside or outside the church may be used for the artwork.

- Artists will provide their own supplies, materials and chair or stool.
- Artwork completed during the day(s) the artist is scheduled for Artists-at-Work must be for sale during the art show, maximum price is $400. St. George's-by-the-River will retain 30% of the sale price.
- If completed artwork is not sold during the Artists-at-Work participating time on Friday or Saturday, the artwork may be included in the Non-Juried Treasures or Portfolio sections of the Canterbury Art Show for sale during the remainder of the show.
- Artwork completed during Artists-at-Work must not exceed 20" x 24" and must be framed or on canvas that wraps around the sides with no staples visible, they must be wired for hanging (tab hangers are not acceptable) or matted and wrapped. The Art Show Committee will add the artwork to the show inventory and provide labels for the artwork before it is hung in the show. The completed artwork will be displayed and will be available for purchase during the show.
- Only work produced while on-site during the show may be sold.
- Artists may provide attendees with business cards or a biography from their work area.
