

2021 Canterbury Art Show Changes to the Show Versus Past Year's Shows

Please refer to the prospectuses for a full description and criteria

We will need to limit the number of people going through the show at one time, we will be taking reservations to attend the show as well as allowing people walking up to enter. There will be no fee for people attending the show. There will not be a reception on Friday night. Participation fees have been reduced to $25 per category, discounted fee of $60 to enter 3 categories. There will be one Best in Show award as well as Award of Excellence and Honorable Mention for the top scores in each medium.

Juried

- Limiting to 60 juried pieces in the show, in 2019 we accepted 113 juried pieces
- Minimum price of piece $400, previously no minimum price
- One Best in Show award, previously had two Best in Show awards one for photography and another for other art

Non-Juried Original Art

- Name changed, formerly called Treasures
- Accepting art from the first 70 submitting/paid artists
- We are asking artists to provide images (JPEGs) of their submitted artwork
- No maximum price on pieces of artwork, previously had price maximum of $400

Non-Juried Un-Framed Matted Originals or Print Art

- Name changed, formerly called Portfolios
- Accepting art from the first 20 submitting/paid artists

Non-Juried Large Art

- Must be original artwork, previously we accepted prints
- Minimum price $400, previously no minimum price
- We will accept 10 pieces total for this category of the show

Non-Juried Dimensional Art

- Accepting pieces from the first 30 submitting/paid artists

Non-Juried Teen Art

- Accepting art from the first 30 teens submitting
- Must be original artwork
- No maximum price